Schwarz Funeral Records 1902–11 April 1910

Schwarz Funeral Home in O’Fallon, Illinois, began in 1894 when Mathias Schwarz purchased the undertaking and furniture business of Charles Ruedlin. Mr. Schwarz was born 13 May 1860 in the area of Germany then called Wuerttemberg, and settled in O’Fallon, Illinois in 1873. His children took over the business in 1919. In 1946 Wolfersberger Funeral Home purchased the undertaking business and preserves the original Schwarz Funeral Records at its facility, 102 West Washington, O’Fallon, Illinois 62269.¹

The following funeral records were photocopied from large ledger books by Cindy Davis for the St. Clair County Genealogical Society; all permissions were obtained from the current owner by Ms. Davis for the Society. Thanks are extended to Judy Phelps for this transcription, and Linda Osterdock for proofreading the document. Photocopies of the records within this publication are stored in the vault at the Belleville Public Library. The dates represented in the library collection encompass 17 August 1901 (1 record); 1902–1909, and 1910 through 11 April of that year. All surviving Schwarz Funeral Record ledger books are located at Wolfersberger Funeral Home. The current staff will search these records upon request, but require a month and year of death, and the deceased’s name. Two resources will help determine month and year of death:

- a) “Database of Illinois Death Certificates, 1916–1950 ,” Illinois State Archives (<http://www.cyberdriveillinois.com/departments/archives/idphdeathindex.html>)
- b) Doris Johnson, “O’Fallon Progress Obituary and Marriage Index Feb 1898 - Dec 2007,” O’Fallon Historical Society (<http://www.ofallonhistory.net/index.html>). The actual obituary, if noted in this index, may be obtained for a small fee from Belleville Public Library, 121 East Washington Street, Belleville, Illinois 62220 (www.bellevillepubliclibrary.org), and the O’Fallon Public Library, 120 Civic Plaza, O’Fallon, Illinois 62269.

NOTES AND OBSERVATIONS

Four hundred one funeral records appear in this compilation. All information from the left side column was extracted, with exception of the time of service. Unless otherwise noted, the line for burial certificate number was blank, and would be different than a death certificate number if one were issued (filing was not mandatory until 1916). The religion of the deceased, if given, was only extracted if it differed from the religion of the church where services were held. Special notes, e.g., coroner’s jury reports, were transcribed in full. The usual residence of the deceased was not noted with any regularity until circa 1904.

Key

y m d refers to age in years, months, days. Zero and blank spaces were not transcribed

[] square brackets surround letters or words which do not appear on the original, but were added by us for clarification

M E Church	Methodist Episcopal	MG	Minister of the Gospel
Ev or Evangel	Evangelical	MD	Physician
Cath	Catholic	C Co; C C; Coff Co.	Coffin Company

An early twentieth century medical dictionary may help determine diseases now known by another name. See, for example, Barbara Jean Evans, A to Zax: A Comprehensive Dictionary for Genealogists and Historians (Alexandria, Va: Hearthsides Press, 1995), and “Genealogy Quest: Genealogical Research Assistance – Glossaries” (<http://www.genealogy-quest.com/glossaries/index.html> : 10 July 2010).

¹ Mary Zotz, “Schwarz Family,” History of St. Clair County, Illinois, Volume II (Dallas, Tx: Curtis Media Corporation, 1992), 634–635.

Prices for items and services which appear in the right side column were not extracted. Most infant funerals cost under $8.00. Few included carriages. The general price range for services fell between $3.00–$18.00. The average adult services ranged between $50.00 to $100.00, with extremes of $2.00, and $566.00. Again, the casket was the biggest expense.

Coffin Companies most often used were Mound, Aurora, and St. Louis. Words frequently misspelled were Alexander (as Alixander), Methodist (as Methotist), and residence (as residense). Some infants buried in a Catholic cemetery would appear to be buried in the “baptist,” row, but “baptized” is the spelling more likely intended.

Funeral Ethics

Extracted from introductory pages in the ledger of these records and titled The American Funeral Record: A Ready Reference Day-Book for Undertakers, supplied by F. J. Feineman, publisher at St. Louis. In addition to proper and respectful demeanor, the following information was offered to the funeral director.

... Have leave-taking occur prior to arrival of friends for the funeral and attend to closing casket or sealing metallic linings before the services begin. Avoid all delay, hitch or misunderstanding with your helpers. Instruct bearers, drivers and others beforehand.

Flowers and smilax on the door crape beautifully suggests through the grim reality of death bright rays of soft feeling and hope.

Lining with evergreens, helps very materially to make a grave seem less distressing during interment.

A very desirable adjunct to your equipment is some matting and possibly a canopy to use at the cemetery, in sunshine or storm. Also be supplied with skull-caps for pall bearers ... protecting their heads from cold or sun....

At the funeral services speeches of lodge members lead the sermon. These speeches are usually made at the grave. If societies attend in a body, the principal services are held at the grave. Episcopal services are mostly held at the house; Roman Catholic always at the church.

Have your hearse paralleled with the sidewalk. (Do not back it into the pavement like a moving van.)

Order of carriages in funeral cortege, to wit: Carriage or carriages with pall bearers, hearse, mourners' carriages, minister's carriage, carriages of friends, and last surreys and buggies. If lodge members conduct the rites, the carriage or carriages of the lodge members lead the procession.

Where the deceased is buried without any religious services or where the mourners are too poor to engage the services of a preacher, the undertaker may officiate and offer the prayer.

If remains are to be shipped, see to it that the departure from the house is set so as to be at the depot at least one-half hour before train time... .

Stillborns are buried by the undertaker alone. It is unusual that any of the family attend the interment.

Where bodies are neither embalmed nor put on ice, keep in coolest place possible... .”
